The benefits and potential for an LGBTQ+ community talk radio station

We are well on our way to being able to broadcast to DAB radios as well as to livestream via the net. We believe that reaching out to those who can't get to the Ledward Centre, and/or don't have access to internet or smartphones is an essential part of making our services accessible to everybody.

If you know of somebody from our communities who is in this situation we really want to hear from them.

Can you help us with that? Either by using your devices to complete a survey for them, or by asking us to send you a downloadable printable pdf, for them to fill in, or by arranging for us to telephone them and conduct the survey over the phone.

For pdf or phone, write to us at info@rainbow-fund.org

16. What would you like to see in the radio station's output? What sort of programmes would you tune in for? Please check as many of these as you want

| <input type="checkbox"/> LGBTQ+ news and interest stories | <input type="checkbox"/> interviews with people within our LGBTQ+ communities |
| <input type="checkbox"/> "call in" type programmes | <input type="checkbox"/> "Desert Island Discs" type programme |

17. What benefits do you believe this radio station can bring to our LGBTQ+ communities here in Brighton & Hove?

Membership, pricing, democracy and volunteering

25. We're aware that one of the ways in which there is diversity within our LGBTQ+ communities is financial stability. We want the benefits of TLC to be available to all of our community, regardless of disposable income, so wish to propose a system of "pay what you can" with a suggested price, and an invitation to pay forward by paying more than the suggested price (working title "TLC pricing") We'd welcome your thoughts

26. Membership. To keep TLC as a safe space, how should we manage membership? Tick statements that you agree with, and comment if you wish at the end

- | | |
|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Ask for simple declaration that applicant identifies within the LGBTQ+ community | <input type="checkbox"/> Cafeteria to offer a "meal of the day" option each day for which members can choose TLC pricing |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Allow "associate membership" for Allies at a fixed price..giving access to cafe and events, but not classes or meet up groups | <input type="checkbox"/> All events, classes etc. to offer TLC pricing |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Annual membership fee, subject to TLC pricing | <input type="checkbox"/> Members offers of discounts etc. with partner businesses in the city |

More thoughts

27. Democracy. The first phase of creating TLC is the acquisition of the lease of the premises by The Brighton Rainbow Fund. An interim management board has been established in the form of a Community Interest Company, with volunteers forming the board. Action teams are being formed from the initial pool of volunteers to cover and manage the various aspects of the progress and process of setting the centre up. An early task for the interim board is to apply to be registered as a charity, which is currently a process that will take some months. There are various models to ensure that TLC the Charity is member led. Please tick any statements that you agree with, and add any comments at the end

- | |
| <input type="checkbox"/> The Trustees of the charity should be elected from and by the membership (excluding associate members) |
| <input type="checkbox"/> All trustees should stand for re-election annually, with a maximum term of five consecutive years |
| <input type="checkbox"/> A quarterly members meeting should be held at which the Trustees board will consult with members answer questions, receive feedback, invite suggestions. Open to all members |

Comments and suggestions please

28. Volunteers. As you will appreciate this is an ambitious project, and will take a lot of us to achieve. If you'd like to join our team of volunteers please leave a contact here and we'll be in touch. (Please be aware that if you wish your responses to our survey questions to remain anonymous you shouldn't give us contact details here...the website will be going live soon and there is opportunity there to let us know of your interest)
